THE HERO WINS.

SEP 28 11 1925

This is just a story, with a new twist. Everything was alright there was honesty, straight forwardness, and right over might. But---the big surprise in the End---is---The Hero Wins---Gets the girl and everything. Infact becomes her slave for life and lives in a tumble down shack.

It starts out with a very unscrupulous Cat that gets another wise honest little mouse to do all his dirty work---and severely beats this little mouse when he refuses.

Bye and bye, as this Cat and Mouse were eating luncheon under a spreading maple tree. Two chestnuts fall down and attracted little Abie's attention to a fair maiden in distress. Abie's right up doing his stuff. He saves the girl and falls in love with her at once.

Then the darn unscrupulous Cat decides he would also like little Abie's girl, and proceeds to steal her away, and knocks poor little Abie cockeyed

The Blooming Black Guard, steals an aeroplane and tries to make Europe with the innocent girl, but Abie wakes up in time, starts right after, he follows on the dense smoke cloud caused by the aeroplane and climbs aboard. In the struggle that follows, the aeroplane is destroyed and they all fall, quite luckily close together. During the fall Abie engages the villain in a sword battle and almost cuts him to shreds.

They land and the villain's sword drive him right into the ground. Abie and his Jewish Rosie are united and clinch for the finish

AESOP says:

Fact is the thing a girl uses to make a slow man think he's fast.
